One of my absolute favorites – as evidenced by the fact that I made a purchase from him – was Ricardo Snitcofsky from Reina Mab Miniaturas, all the way from Argentina. His pieces were not only totally delightful, they were totally affordable too! His wares included vintage telescopes, cameras, gramophones, tiny children's theatres and period-style radios.

It took me a full day to do the show justice, allowing for a short lunch break at the on-site café. Then I caught my flight home to Edinburgh, Scotland laden with tiny goodies and brimming with inspiration. Can't wait for the Christmas show!
